REUNION
COMMITTEE

August 11, 2005

HONORARY
CHAIRMAN

Joe Goldfarb

Dear MU Swimming & Diving Team Alumni:

COMMITTEE
MEMBERS

We hope that you will make plans to join us for a "September to Remember." A beautiful fall weekend in Columbia has been planned to offer you the chance to reminisce with former teammates while we celebrate 40 years of Missouri Swimming and Diving.

Tim Boyle

The weekend will feature opportunities to REMEMBER – great memories of the past and the promise the future of swimming and diving holds at the University of Missouri.

*Julie Effinger
Merrill*

Alumni are invited to participate in the first "official" meet in the new Mizzou Aquatic Center. Several events are planned including a special tribute to Coach Goldfarb for his 23 years of service and dedication to the program.

Bruce Hopson

*Kendra Jacobs
Shapley*

If you would be willing to make personal contacts with former swimmers and divers, we can assist you with finding contact information of your former teammates so that you can encourage them to attend. Please visit www.mizzouswimdivealums.com for more details.

Gary Jewell

Heather Long

I look forward to reuniting with you in Columbia to celebrate the history of our program and mark the beginning of a new and promising era for Swimming and Diving at the University of Missouri.

Kirk Richards

Adam Shapley

Remembering Mizzou,

Tim Boyle
MU Swimming & Diving Team '74-'78
Chairman – Reunion Committee

Brian Hoffer
Head Coach
MU Swimming & Diving

Alumni Meet - Part II: Fun Swims and Relays - 11:30 am

Meet Ends - 12:00 pm

Current and former Tigers will gather to participate in the first "competition meet" held in the new Mizzou Aquatic Center. Alumni will have access to the team locker rooms to dress for the meet and will workout in the pool under the direction of Coaches Goldfarb and Hoffer. A 3M springboard and a 10M platform diving exhibition by current team members and alumni will serve as an intermission for the meet.

Lunch at Tiger Lounge - 12:30 pm to 2:00 pm

After christening the new pool, alumni will enjoy a great lunch in the Tiger Lounge - the sky box area overlooking Faurot Field.

Free Time - 2:00 pm to 6:30 pm

Take this time to relax, enjoy Columbia, or tour the many recent additions to the MU campus including the new Life Sciences Center, the Virginia Avenue Housing Complex and the construction of the Reynolds Journalism Institute.

Optional Tours of Mizzou Arena 6:30 pm to 7:30pm

Reception, Dinner and Program 7:00 pm to 9:30 pm

Clinton Room - Mizzou Arena

The "September to Remember" dinner will be hosted in the Clinton Room of Mizzou Arena. Guided tours of this state-of-the-art facility will be offered along with silent auction items to support the team. The evening will feature a retrospect of the 40 years of Mizzou Swimming and Diving and a special tribute to Coach Goldfarb.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2005

Brunch at the Heidelberg - 10:30 am to Noon

Enjoy a great brunch at a classic Mizzou hangout. The Heidelberg Restaurant's new roof top deck has been reserved for us. This meal is optional and on your own.
